JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 29 May 1973

25X1

1. [redacted] Arnold Smith, Senate Appropriations

Committee staff, called this morning and said they needed our clearance on the passage of General Walters' 23 May testimony to the attorneys for Haldeman, Ehrlichman, and Dean. I told Smith we had not yet received a copy of the transcript from the Committee and arrangements were made to pick up and review it.

Later in the day I hand-carried to Smith a copy of the extract of the 8 July 1972 minute item prepared by OGC.

2. [redacted] Called Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations

Committee staff, and suggested that in view of the transition taking place between James Schlesinger and William Colby as Director of Central Intelligence that our budget hearing be put back somewhat. We settled on 20 June with the community budget presentation in the morning and the Agency budget presentation in the afternoon. This was cleared with Colby and confirmed with McConnell.

3. [redacted] I provided Arnold Smith and Guy McConnell,

Senate Appropriations Committee staff, with copies of our inventory of documents which should be in the hands of the three Agency Subcommittees which have been holding hearings on the Watergate issue and related matters.

25X1

4. [redacted] Talked again with [redacted] CI Staff, about the Intelligence Evaluation Committee. He indicated that to his knowledge and to the knowledge of Jim Angleton there was no documentation establishing this group.
